Higgins' Play

Appropos of the coming of West Virginia Wesleyan College to Pittsburg for a game with Duquesne University on the bluff tomorrow, do you recall the famous play in which Bob Higgins, the Wesleyan coach, took part against Pitt in the closing game of his collegiate career, at Forbes Field, Thanksgiving Day, 1919? State beat Pitt, 20-0, that day, and Bob's play started the Panthers skidding on their way to defeat. Since then, two Pitt-State games have ended in scoreless ties. The play occurring in the first quarter was a forward pass from behind the goal line to Higgins, an all-American end, by the way, on the 25-yard line. Bob dashed the remaining 75 yards to a touchdown. State, in possession of the ball, was backed up near its goal line, and the natural play to expect was a punt from behind the goal. Hess, fullback and punter, went back and Pitt played for a kick, the forwards breaking through to block a punt. The field was heavy and the safety man in the backfield played close up. The ball was snapped back, the lines charged, Hess poised himself for the throw and then sent the ball far out to Higgins along the sideline. Bob had some interference, but he soon lost it and was chased from behind the last half of the distance to the goal line.

At the time the play was pulled, it was believed to be a lucky one, thought out on the spur of the moment, but it developed later that State had practiced it for just such an occasion. Had the pass been intercepted, it would have been a very bad play, completed, it would have cost a punt, and it contained the element of surprise, caught Pitt napping and gave State—both a scoring and psychological edge which the Panthers could not overcome.

RELATIONS STRAINED
BY CRYPTIC CHARGES

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—With athletic relations between the universities of Wisconsin and Illinois strained as a result of yesterday's cryptic exchange of charges of professionalism against football players of both schools and the banishment from "big ten" athletics of a player from each team, the Western Conference was agog today over its newest football scandal; aftermath of the notorious Carlisle-Taylorville game last fall.

Wisconsin authorities contended that the action of the conference eligibility board in barring J. A. B. Murray, Badger tackle, was unjustified because Murray was not registered as a student and was not attending any school when he played in the Taylorville game last year, the game which caused a sensation last winter when nine Illinois players and several Notre Dame men were barred on charges of professionalism as a result of disclosures made by college authorities in their investigation.

"He has produced evidence that he received no money for playing and still insists that he is eligible," says the Wisconsin statement.

Allison Auger, the Illinois player banished yesterday, admitted playing at Taylorville but not in the game over which all the trouble started.

Coch. Richards of Wisconsin said he would protest four other Illinois players—Green, Vates, Robinson and Durant.

The most severe criticism of Wisconsin was made by George Huff, veterans athletic director at Illinois, who accused Wisconsin of violating conference rules in making public charges against the Illinois players.

OSGOOD LEAVES TO GET STOLEN GOODS

D. M. Osgood of Fairmont left the city last night for London, Ky., where he will receive several hundred dollars worth of merchandise belonging to his clothing store here, recently stolen by the negro chauffeur. The property is in the hands of the city authorities having been seized by them when Pelt arrived in that town.

Pelt, or Baker, as he was known in Fairmont, was in the employ of the Osgood store as chauffeur. Several weeks ago, while Mr. Osgood was in the East, Pelt was sent on a delivery with the firm, automobile bearing several hundred dollars worth of suits and coats. Instead of delivering the orders Pelt used the Cadillac as a means of escape from this city, taking the merchandise with him.

The seizure of the car was effected by the London police when they endeavored to arrest Pelt on bootlegging charge. When the car was seized Pelt made a successful dash for liberty. Upon examination of the contents of the car the authorities discovered a picture of him in his trunk. The picture was sent out and the local authorities, who had begun an investigation of the theft upon Mr. Osgood's return, recognized the runaway as Pelt.

The merchandise and car were retained at London. Last night Robert Beirne drove the Cadillac back to Fairmont from London.

Mr. Osgood will elicit his possessions in the way of the merchandise upon his arrival in London today. A reward of $50 has been offered by Mr. Osgood for the capture of Pelt.

Economy Hints

See how the WANTS can help you save.

It's an old saying, "A penny saved is a penny earned."

In turning articles into cash, finding a ready market for real estate, securing tenants, gaining employment, restoring lost articles—in every act of buying, selling, renting, exchanging, hiring, the wants prove an economy—a means of saving.

The Wants save time, too and a saving of energy is as thrifty as saving money.

This Date in History

NOVEMBER 3.

Three great evils are apt to dominate Scorpio people when the animal plane is foremost. These are anger, jealousy and passion, and if permitted to hold sway will destroy their integrity and ruin their lives.

This sign is a natural prerogative centre, and the unawakened scorpio person is sometimes a monster of lust. The intense love of praise and flattery is another great weakness.

The best companionships exist between those born under Pisces, the negative pole of the water triplicity. Staunch friends are to be found in Libra and Virgo.

The governing planet of this date is Mars, God of War, and the actual colors are golden brown and black. The governing sign is Scorpio.
